16 v.

17 WELLS FARGO & CO.,

18 Defendant.

Case No. 08-2670 CW

19 ORDER APPROVING FLSA
20 COLLECTIVE ACTION SETTLEMENT

21 Date: April 28, 2011
22 Time: 3:00 p.m.
23 Courtroom: 2, 4th floor
24 Judge: Honorable Claudia Wilken

1 On April 28, 2011, a hearing was held on the unopposed motion of Plaintiffs Martin
2 Lewis, Aaron Cooper, and Anissa Schilling for Approval of FLSA Collective Action Settlement.
3 Kelly M. Dermody, Jahan C. Sagafi, Jaron R. Shipp, and Anne B. Shaver of Lieff, Cabraser,
4 Heimann & Bernstein, LLP appeared for Plaintiffs; and Joan B. Tucker Fife of Winston & Strawn
5 LLP appeared for Wells Fargo.

6 Having considered the papers on the motion, the arguments of counsel, and the law, the 7 Court now enters this Settlement Approval Order and FINDS, CONCLUDES, and ORDERS as 8 follows:<sup>1</sup>

9 I. NATURE OF ACTION

10 Plaintiffs allege that Wells Fargo misclassified them and the Opt-Ins as exempt from 11 overtime under the FLSA and California and Minnesota state laws and, on that basis, failed to pay
12 them and the Opt-Ins overtime wages, to provide them with required meal periods and rest 13 breaks, to provide them with correctly itemized wage statements, and to timely pay wages at 14 termination. Plaintiffs also alleged that with regard to such matters, Wells Fargo violated the 15 Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et 16 seq., by failing to pay benefits as a result of failing to credit Plaintiffs and the Opt-Ins for their 17 claimed unpaid wages.

18 Wells Fargo denies each of the allegations in the Second Amended Complaint and denies 19 that any Plaintiff or Opt-In is entitled to recovery. Wells Fargo denies that this action may be 20 properly maintained as a collective action under the FLSA.

21 Although Plaintiffs’ Complaint was also styled as a class action, and a class motion is 22 currently pending, the Plaintiffs have compromised their class claims in order to reach resolution
23 on the collective action allegations, with which Wells Fargo concurs. Accordingly, Plaintiffs’
24 Motion for Class Certification is deemed withdrawn.

25 II. JURISDICTION

26 This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this litigation and all related matters

27 _____
28 <sup>1</sup> Except as otherwise specified herein, the Court for purposes of this Settlement Approval Order adopts all defined terms set forth in the Settlement.

1 and all state and federal claims raised in this action and/or released in the Settlement, and
2 personal jurisdiction over Wells Fargo and all Opt-Ins. Specifically, this Court has federal
3 question jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331; section 16(b) of the Fair
4 Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b); and the Employee Retirement Income
5 Security Act (“ERISA”), 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e)(1).

6 This Court also has supplemental jurisdiction over all state-law claims asserted or that
7 could have been asserted by Plaintiffs because the state-law claims derive from a common
8 nucleus of operative fact and form part of the same case or controversy as those claims over
9 which the Court has primary jurisdiction. See 28 U.S.C. § 1367 (providing for supplemental 10 jurisdiction over related state-law claims that “form part of the same case or controversy”);
11 United Mine Workers v. Gibbs, 383 U.S. 715, 726 (1996) (federal courts have supplemental 12 jurisdiction over state law claims that arise from the same “common nucleus of operative fact”
13 such that the parties “would ordinarily be expected to try them all in one judicial proceeding”).

14 This Court also has jurisdiction to approve the Settlement’s release of claims by Opt-Ins
15 over which the Court has jurisdiction, even if the Court would not independently have jurisdiction
16 over those released claims. See Grimes v. Vitalink Communications, 17 F.3d 1553, 1563 (3d Cir.
17 1994) (citing Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1287-88 (9th Cir. 1992) (“[A]
18 federal court may release not only claims alleged in the complaint, but also state claims arising 19 from the same nucleus of operative facts over which the court would not have jurisdictional
20 competence.”); Reyn’s Pasta Bella, LLC v. Visa USA, Inc., 442 F.3d 741, 748 (9th Cir. 2006)
21 (quoting Class Plaintiffs, 955 F.2d at 1287-89).

22 III. APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

23 The Court has reviewed the terms of the Settlement, including the $6,720,000 Settlement
24 amount, the plan of allocation, and the release of claims. The Court has also read and considered
25 Plaintiffs’ Motion for Collective Action Settlement Approval and its supporting memoranda and 26 evidence, including the declaration of Jahan C. Sagafi in support of Settlement Approval. Based 27 on review of those papers, and the Court’s familiarity with this case, the Court finds and 28 concludes that the Settlement is the result of arms-length negotiations between the Parties,

1 conducted under the supervision of an experienced, independent mediator, after Plaintiffs'
2 Counsel had adequately investigated Plaintiffs' and the Opt-Ins' claims and become familiar with
3 their strengths and weaknesses. The assistance of an experienced mediator in the settlement
4 process confirms that the Settlement is non-collusive.

5 The Court finds and determines that the payments to be made to the Opt-Ins as provided
6 for in the Settlement are fair and reasonable. The proposed plan of allocation is rationally related 7 to the relative strengths of the respective claims asserted.

8 The Settlement is not a concession or admission, and shall not be used or construed
9 against Wells Fargo as an admission or indication with respect to any claim of any fault or 10 omission by Wells Fargo.

11 IV. APPROVAL OF THE NOTICE PROGRAM

12 Plaintiffs have also submitted for this Court's approval a proposed Notice of Settlement
13 (submitted as Exhibit A to the Settlement).

14 The Notice is the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice fairly,
15 plainly, accurately, and reasonably informs Opt-Ins of: (1) appropriate information about the 16 nature of this action, the identities of the Opt-Ins, the definitions of Covered Position and Covered
17 Periods, the identity of Plaintiffs' Counsel, and the essential terms of the Settlement, including the 18 plan of allocation; (2) appropriate information about the amounts being allocated to Plaintiffs as 19 Service Payments and to Plaintiffs' Counsel's as attorneys' fees and costs; and (3) appropriate
20 instructions as to how to obtain additional information regarding this action and the Settlement.

21 The proposed plan for distributing the Notice likewise is a reasonable method calculated
22 to reach all individuals who would be bound by the Settlement. Under this plan, the Settlement
23 Administrator will distribute the Notice and Settlement Share checks to all Opt-Ins by first-class
24 mail to their last known addresses. There is no additional method of distribution that would be 25 reasonably likely to notify Opt-Ins who may not receive notice pursuant to the proposed
26 distribution plan. In addition, the Settlement Administrator will take reasonable steps to locate
27 Opt-Ins who do not promptly cash their Settlement Share checks.

28 Plaintiffs shall post a copy of this Order and the Settlement Agreement on the website

1 referred to in the Notice.

2 Accordingly, the Court finds and concludes that the proposed plan for distributing the
3 Notice will provide the best notice practicable and satisfies all legal and due process
4 requirements.

5 V. PLAINTIFFS' AND OPT-INS' RELEASE OF CLAIMS

6 The Court has reviewed the release in section XI of the Settlement and finds it to be fair,
7 reasonable, and enforceable under the FLSA and all other applicable law. Plaintiffs and every 8 Opt-In shall, pursuant to the Settlement, be bound by the release of claims as set forth in the 9 Settlement, regardless of whether a Plaintiff or Opt-in cashes or deposits his or her settlement 10 check.

11 VI. APPOINTMENT OF SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

12 Settlement Services, Inc., is hereby appointed Settlement Administrator to carry out the 13 duties set forth in this Preliminary Approval Order and the Settlement.

14 VII. SERVICE PAYMENTS TO THE NAMED PLAINTIFFS

15 The Court approves the service payments to the three Named Plaintiffs as set forth under 16 the Settlement. The Court finds and determines that the awards of $22,000, $20,000, and $20,000
17 to Plaintiffs Cooper, Lewis, and Schilling, respectively, are fair and reasonable. The Plaintiffs 18 have taken significant actions to protect the interests of the Opt-Ins, and the Opt-Ins have 19 benefited considerably from those actions. Furthermore, the Plaintiffs have expended 20 considerable time and effort in pursuing the litigation. Plaintiffs' assertion of California and 21 Minnesota state law claims on behalf of their fellow Opt-Ins tolled the statutes of limitations for 22 those state law claims, to the benefit of the Opt-Ins who worked or work in those states.
23 Furthermore, Plaintiffs' Counsel attest that Plaintiffs were substantially involved throughout the 24 litigation, educating Plaintiffs' counsel on Opt-Ins' job duties and Wells Fargo's policies and 25 procedures. Plaintiffs submitted declarations regarding their Wells Fargo work experiences,
26 which contributed to the Settlement. Plaintiffs' depositions were taken by Defendant. Plaintiff
27 Cooper also attended and assisted in the Parties' mediation session.
28

1 VIII. PLAINTIFFS' COUNSEL'S AWARD OF FEES AND COSTS

2 The Court finds and determines that the payment of $1,680,000 in attorneys' fees (or 25 %
3 of the fund) and $184,338.71 in litigation costs and expenses, for a total payment of 4 $1,864,338.71 to Plaintiffs' Counsel, is fair and reasonable. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290
5 F.3d 1043, 1047 (9th Cir. 2002); Chemical Bank v. City of Seattle (In re Washington Public
6 Power Supply Sec. Litig.), 19 F.3d 1291, 1297 (9th Cir. 1994); Paul, Johnson, Alston & Hunt v.
7 Grauly, 886 F.2d 268, 272 (9th Cir. 1989); Six Mexican Workers v. Arizona Citrus Growers, 904
8 F.2d 1301, 1311 (9th Cir. 1990).

9 IX. ENFORCEMENT OF OBLIGATIONS

10 Nothing in this Settlement Approval Order will preclude any action to enforce the Parties'
11 obligations under the Settlement or under this order, including the requirement that Wells Fargo
12 make the Settlement Payments in accordance with the terms of the Settlement.

13 X. ORDER VACATED IF SETTLEMENT IS REVERSED OR MATERIALLY
14 MODIFIED

15 If, for any reason, the Settlement is reversed or materially modified on appeal (as defined 16 in the Settlement, section X), this Settlement Approval Order will be vacated; the Parties will 17 return to their respective positions in this action as those positions existed immediately before the 18 parties executed the Settlement; and nothing stated in the Settlement or any other papers filed
19 with this Court in connection with the Settlement will be deemed an admission of any kind by any 20 of the Parties or used as evidence against, or over the objection of, any of the Parties for any 21 purpose in this action or in any other action.

22 XI. FINAL JUDGMENT

23 By means of this Settlement Approval Order, this Court hereby enters final judgment in 24 this action, as defined in Federal Rule of Procedure 58(a)(1).

25 The Parties are hereby ordered to comply with the terms of the Settlement.

26 This action is dismissed with prejudice, each side to bear its own costs and attorneys' fees
27 except as provided by the Settlement and the Court's orders.
28

1 XII. CONTINUING JURISDICTION

2 Without affecting the finality of the Court's judgment in any way, the Court retains
3 jurisdiction over this matter for purposes of resolving issues relating to interpretation,
4 administration, implementation, effectuation and enforcement of the Settlement.

5 XIII. SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

6 Based on all of these findings and the applicable legal standards, the Court concludes that 7 the proposed Settlement meets the criteria for settlement approval, and Orders the Parties to 8 distribute the payments required under the Settlement.

9 IT IS SO ORDERED.
